

Bible Character Study

Keep the passage open. Listen carefully. Verify claims in context.

Character and passage

What does the text explicitly show this person saying or doing?

What pressures, motives, relationships, or consequences are visible?

What should we avoid assuming beyond the text?

What can we learn without turning description into a command?
