

Nicodemus at Night

A quiet conversation about new birth, Spirit, love, and light.

John 3:1-21

Read the cited passage in your Bible alongside this original resource.

Read John 3:1-21 first

This is a six-scene visual interpretation of the cited passage, designed to lead you back to the Bible. Images, staging, facial expressions, and transitions are imaginative. The panel notes identify the passage details behind them and distinguish symbolism from events narrated in Scripture.

Follow the panels from left to right, top to bottom. Then read the scene guide on the following page.

Nicodemus at Night

01 A night visit

Nicodemus, a Pharisee and ruler, comes to Jesus at night.

02 An opening question

He recognizes Jesus as a teacher from God, and Jesus turns to the need for new birth.

03 A puzzled listener

Nicodemus asks how someone can be born when old.

04 Wind and Spirit

Jesus uses wind to speak of the Spirit's work. The moving leaves visualize the metaphor.

05 An earlier story

Jesus refers to Moses lifting the serpent in the wilderness. The fifth panel is a visual allusion to that reference.

06 Love and light

The passage turns toward God's love, belief, and the contrast of light and darkness. Dawn is an artistic symbol, not a stated time change.

Return to the passage

Read John 3:1-21 again. Which scene helps you notice something in the text? Which detail in the art must be treated as interpretation rather than Scripture?

Read the text for yourself

This resource is an original reading companion. It does not replace Scripture. Bible passages are identified by reference; study notes, scene captions, reflection prompts, and prayers are BibleAlong's original writing, not quotations from a Bible translation.

For an openly shareable English text, read the World English Bible Classic at eBible.org. The publisher identifies this translation as public domain.

Primary reading: John 3:1-21

World English Bible Classic: <https://ebible.org/eng-web/>

BibleAlong Reader: <https://www.biblealong.org/reading>